Join us for two days with Afro-Italian filmmaker
Fred Kuwornu

Tuesday 25th February, 5:00-7:00pm, Strickland Hall 105

It recounts the story of the 92nd Infantry Division of the Buffalo soldiers, which was the only African American division that experienced combat in Europe during WWII.

Wednesday 26th February, 3:30-5:30pm, Tate Hall 215

Ethnicity, National Identity, and Multiculturalism in Contemporary Italy: 18 Ius Soli (2012)

This grassroots documentary follows the stories of eighteen girls and boys born and raised in Italy from migrant parents, who, at 18, are not recognized as Italian citizens.

The director will be present at each screening for film introduction and Q&A.

Fred Kuwornu will also be a presenter at

Missouri School of Journalism
Thursday, February 26th

Sponsored by the Afro-Romance Institute, Romance Languages, Film Studies, Based on a True Story.