The Afro-Romance Institute Presents

The Missouri premiere of:

Nancy Morejón, Famous Landscapes

A film produced and directed in Cuba by
Juanamaría Cordones-Cook
Professor, Romance Languages and Literatures
University of Missouri

Documentary offers a unique perspective on contemporary Cuban culture and intellectual life through the world and artistic achievements of Nancy Morejón (Havana 1944), the most celebrated and widely translated living Afro-Latin American poet, whose writings address contemporary issues of ethnicity, gender, history, and Afro-Cuban identity. This film also includes voices and images of other prominent Afro-Cuban intellectuals accompanied by music performed by icons of the 20th century Cuban musical world.

And distinguished guest speakers:

Dr. Efrain Barradas, University of Florida-Gainesville:
"Peñalver, 52: The House, The Sea"

Dr. Patricia González, Smith College:
"Nancy Morejón: Weaving Water Worlds"

Friday, April 25, 2014
6:00 pm
Leadership Auditorium
2501 MU Student Center
University of Missouri-Columbia

Light refreshments will be served at the event.

Sponsored by: the MU Afro-Romance Institute, the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures, the Office of the Chancellor's Diversity Initiative, the Office of the Vice Provost for International Programs, the Arts & Humanities Small Grants Program, and the University Lectures Committee