THE AFRO-ROMANCE INSTITUTE AND THE DEPARTMENT OF ROMANCE LANGUAGES AND LITERATURES PRESENT:

Alejandro de la Fuente
Harvard University

Professor de la Fuente, a historian of Latin America and the Caribbean who specializes in the study of comparative slavery and race relations, will speak about:

“Racial Democracy in Latin America: Lessons from the Cuban Revolution”

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 2015
5:30 PM
LEADERSHIP AUDITORIUM
Room 2501, STUDENT CENTER

There will be a reception at the event.

Sponsored by: the Chancellor’s Distinguished Visitors Program; the Afro-Romance Institute and the Department of Romance Languages and Literatures; the Chancellor’s Diversity Initiative; the Black History Month Committee; and the Museum of Art and Archaeology.